"Dear Mrs. Herbert, is it good for you to be here?"
The sight of the half-withered posy always affected Lorraine strangely.
That evening, as she looked out from her favourite window, lost in melancholy thought.
"Why are you going away? I am not asleep, Ellison."
"Oh, auntie, how happy you must be to live in such a lovely place!" exclaimed Norah suddenly.
"Look at them, sweetheart!" whispered Gavin.
